

RECRUITING THE RIGHT TELEHEALTH TALENT IS ESSENTIAL

AlediumHR

Telehealth Recruiting

Starting in 2013, AlediumHR was the first telehealth recruiting firm, long before Covid made virtual care an integral part of healthcare. With our experience and industry knowledge, we understand the requirements for medical professionals to succeed in virtual roles.

AlediumHR recruits highly skilled medical professionals who diagnose, treat, assess, monitor, and educate in virtual roles for hospitals, healthcare facilities, and telehealth industry providers. We have a database of 200,000+ skilled telehealth professionals.

AlediumHR recruits Nurses, Physicians, Therapists, Lab, Pharmacy, IT, Biomedical, Support, and other clinical and non-clinical virtual positions in the United States and Canada.
