

Recruiting Telehealth Talent Since 2013

AlediumHR

Telehealth Recruiting

Since 2013, AlediumHR has been at the forefront of telehealth recruiting, paving the way for virtual care in healthcare even before the advent of Covid. Our extensive experience and industry expertise give us a deep understanding of the essential qualifications for medical professionals to thrive in remote roles.

We specialize in recruiting highly skilled medical professionals who provide virtual services in diagnosing, treating, assessing, monitoring, and educating patients. We cater to hospitals, healthcare facilities, and telehealth industry providers. Our extensive database consists of over 500,000 skilled healthcare professionals.

AlediumHR recruits Remote Nurses, Physicians, Licensed Counselors, and many other Clinical and Non-Clinical roles in the United States and Canada.
